

Dgroups is a partnership of international organisations working together towards a common vision:

“ A world where every person is able to contribute to dialogue and decision-making for international development and social justice „

Dgroups supports more than 270,000 registered users worldwide, interacting in more than 800 global communities of practice. Its unique benefits are:

- Specifically designed for low bandwidth settings
- Turnkey solution to meet communication and networking needs
- Very easy to use - no training required for users
- Rapid, personal technical support
- Non-commercial, no advertising, no sharing of personal data with third parties
- Ownership of content rests with the individual or organization that posted it

Dgroups

Development Through Dialogue

Dgroups supports email-based and online interaction of groups, communities and networks of all sizes. By using email as the core of its operations, Dgroups is designed specifically for effective use by non-profit organisations and low bandwidth users in the Global South - allowing for inclusive dialogue among all relevant stakeholders regardless of location of available bandwidth.

For further information and how to join, visit

dgroups.info

Dgroups

Development Through Dialogue

Dgroups is a joint initiative of organisations working to support international development such as: Department for International Development (DFID), European Centre for Development Policy Making (ECDPM), Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO), Forum for Agricultural Research in Africa (FARA), Humanist Institute for Co-operation with Developing Countries (Hivos), Institute of Development Studies (IDS), Swiss Development Cooperation (SDC), Technical Centre for Agricultural and Rural Cooperation (CTA), United Nations Capital Development Fund (UNCDF).

Dgroups is financially supported and managed by the Dgroups Foundation. Dgroups Partners are committed to supporting Dgroups as a global public good of online groups, networks and communities.

We welcome requests to join Dgroups from organisations working for international development, human rights and global justice. The annual contribution ranges between 500 and 5000 Euro, depending on the annual turnover of the organization requesting membership.

Please visit dgroups.info or contact us at dg-coordination@dgroups.org
for details and inquiries